Do You Know a Good Samaritan?

The inscription on the Good Samaritan Award reads as follows:

“In recognition of an individual in our local community whose selfless acts best exemplify the spirit of N. Donald Diebel, Jr., M.D.

The recipient’s actions are heroic in nature and performed without the hope of personal gain or recognition. In honoring this person, others are inspired to help those in need and to perpetuate the message of the Good Samaritan.”

We are searching for the person who best personifies this concept of a Good Samaritan. Do you know someone in the Central Florida area whose actions fit this description? If so, please take a moment to nominate them.

If your nominee is selected, The N. Donald Diebel, Jr., M.D. Good Samaritan Fund will donate $2,500.00 to the 501(c)3 organization of your choice.

Previous winners of the Good Samaritan Award:

- 2008: Rev. Tom Beauregard: Founder of Mission Christian Family & Youth Services, meeting the basic needs of food, hygiene, and a kind word to community members who are often forgotten.
- 2007: Hal George: Co-founded and has selflessly & generously supported the Winter Park - Maitland Chapter of Habitat for Humanity for over 17 years.
- 2006: Vicki McVay-Froom: Gives freely of her time, knowledge and resources to help women and families in Central Florida to reclaim and redirect their lives.
- 2005: Shawn Genovese: A high school senior who was credited with saving the life of a 10 year old boy who was trapped in a truck filling up with water.
- 2004: Vantrease Russell: Founder of the Russell Home, where she spent more than 50 years providing love, nurturance and security to over 1,500 atypical children.
- 2003: Shane Kelly: A courageous and dedicated firefighter who gave his life while aiding two individuals who were trapped in an overturned truck.
